DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Albert Schlossnagle Farm is dramatically situated on the crest of a ridge overlooking Savage River State Forest. The house is a two-and-a-half story three by two bay German sided frame structure with a cross gable roof and two interior brick chimneys. On the southwest facade is a first story porch supported by turned posts. The windows have two over two lights.

The front entrance includes a transom and an original, very decoratively carved, door with an upper glass panel. The same door also appears on the rear entrance. Another porch appears on the back, northeast elevation and extends around the southeast side where a third entrance is located. In the gable ends of the roof are diamond shaped windows.

A couple of outbuildings are also on the property. Included is a frame bank barn on a stone foundation, a small frame outbuilding and a spring house. The stone-based spring house is banked with the spring below and a frame storage room above.
